12.2. Resignation of member

- (a) A member who has paid all membership fees may resign as a member by giving written notice of their resignation to the Secretary.
- (b) The member's resignation is effective as at:
 - (i) The time of receipt by the Secretary of the person's written notice of resignation, or
 - (ii) If a later time is stated in the notice, at that later time.
 - (iii) Despite their resignation, any member who resigns from the Association remains liable to pay any outstanding membership fees to the Association.

12.3. Suspension or expulsion of member

- (a) The Association may, by committee resolution, suspend or expel a member from membership if:
 - (i) The member refuses or neglects to comply with this Constitution, or
 - (ii) The member's conduct or behaviour is detrimental to the interests of the Association.
- (b) The Secretary shall, not less than twenty eight (28) days before the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is to be considered, give written notice to the member:
 - (i) Of the proposed suspension or expulsion and the grounds on which it is based,
 - (ii) Of the date, place and time of the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is to be considered,
 - (iii) That the member, or the member's representative, may attend the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is to be considered, and
 - (iv) That the member, or the member's representative, may address the committee at the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is to be considered and shall be given a full and fair opportunity to state the member's case orally, in writing, or both.
- (c) At the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is to be considered the committee shall:
 - (i) Give the member, or the member's representative, a full and fair opportunity to state the member's case orally,
 - (ii) Give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member, and

- (iii) Determine whether or not the member should be:
 - (A) Expelled as a member, or
 - (B) Suspended as a member, and if so, the period of the member's suspension.
- (d) Once the committee has decided to suspend or expel a member, the member is immediately suspended or expelled.
- (e) Within seven (7) days of the committee meeting at which the suspension or expulsion resolution is considered, the Secretary shall ensure that the member is informed in writing of the committee's decision and the reasons for the committee's decision.

12.4. After suspension of member

- (a) If a member's membership is suspended under Clause 12.3 the Secretary shall record in the members register within twenty eight (28) days ^(M) of the date of suspension:
 - (i) The suspended member's name,
 - (ii) The date on which the member's suspension takes effect, and
 - (iii) The length of the suspension determined by the committee under Clause 12.3(c)(iii)(b).
- (b) A suspended member cannot exercise any rights or privileges of a member, including voting rights, during the period of suspension.
- (c) Upon the expiry of the suspension period, the Secretary shall record in the members register that the member is no longer suspended within twenty eight (28) days ^(M) of that expiration date.

12.5. Member's right of appeal against suspension or expulsion ^(M)

Within fourteen (14) days of receiving notice of the committee's decision under Clause 12.3(c), an expelled or suspended member may appeal the committee's suspension or expulsion decision by giving written notice of the expelled or suspended member's intention to seek:

- (a) An appeal of the committee's suspension or expulsion decision, and
- (b) The appointment of a mediator under Clause 35.

12.6. Reinstatement of member ^(M)

If the committee's decision to suspend or expel a member is revoked, any act performed by the committee or members in general meeting during the period that the member was suspended or expelled from membership under Clause 12.3, is deemed to be valid, notwithstanding the member's inability to exercise their rights or privileges of a member, including the right to vote, during that suspension period.

- (a) This clause applies to: ^(M)
 - (i) Disputes between members, and ^(M)
 - (ii) Disputes between the Association and one or more members that arise under the Constitution or relate to the Constitution. ^(M)

- (b) In this Clause 35, the term member includes any former member whose membership ceased not more than six (6) months before the dispute occurred.
- (c) The parties to a dispute shall attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within fourteen (14) days of the dispute coming to the attention of each party.
- (d) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, any party to the dispute may initiate a procedure under this Clause 34 by giving written notice to the Secretary of the parties to, and details of, the dispute.
- (e) The Association shall hold a committee meeting within twenty eight (28) days after the Secretary receives notice of the dispute under Clause 34(d) for the committee to determine the dispute.
- (f) At the committee meeting to determine the dispute, all parties to the dispute shall be given a full and fair opportunity to state their respective cases orally, in writing, or both.
- (g) The Secretary shall inform the parties to the dispute of the committee's decision and the reasons for the decision within 7 days after the committee meeting referred to in Clause 34(e). ^{(GP)(R)}
- (h) If any party to the dispute is dissatisfied with the decision of the committee, they may elect to initiate further dispute resolution procedures as set out in the Constitution.

35. Mediation

- (a) This Clause 35 applies:
 - (i) Where a person is dissatisfied with a decision made by the committee under Clause 34(g), or
 - (ii) Where a dispute arises between a member or more than one member and the Association and any party to the dispute elects not to have the matter determined by the committee.
- (b) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by Clause 34(c) or a party to a dispute is dissatisfied with a decision made under Clause 34(g) a party to a dispute may:
 - (i) Provide written notice to the Secretary identifying the parties to, and the details of, the dispute, and
 - (ii) Agree to, or request the appointment of, a mediator to resolve the dispute.
- (c) The Secretary shall then ensure that a mediator is appointed to resolve the dispute who shall be:
 - (i) A person chosen by agreement between the parties to the dispute, or
 - (ii) In the absence of agreement between the parties to the dispute, a mediator appointed by the committee.
- (d) Where the dispute relates to a proposal for the suspension or expulsion of a member this Clause 35 does not apply until the procedure under Clause 12 in respect of the proposed suspension or expulsion has been completed.
- (e) The party or parties requesting the mediation shall pay the costs of the mediation.
- (f) The mediator can be a member provided the member is not a party to the dispute.
- (g) The parties to the dispute shall attempt to settle the dispute by mediation in good faith.
- (h) The parties are to exchange written statements of the issues that are in dispute between them and supply copies to the mediator at least five (5) days before the date of the mediation.

- (i) The mediator, in conducting the mediation, shall:
 - (i) Give the parties to the mediation every opportunity to be heard,
 - (ii) Allow all parties to consider any written statement submitted by any party, and
 - (iii) Ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation.
- (j) The mediation shall be confidential.
- (k) Information provided by the parties in the course of the mediation cannot be used in any other legal proceedings that may take place in relation to the dispute.

36. Inability to resolve dispute ^(M)

If a dispute cannot be resolved under the procedures set out in Clauses 34 and 35, any party to the dispute may apply to the Administrative Tribunal to determine the dispute in accordance with the associations Act or otherwise at law. ^(M)
